

CHARACTER STUDY/BIO

You have a Character to Create on Stage; also many a star has been born when an actor had to step in and take over as an understudy because someone was unable to do a part. No matter what the part, study, rehearse, and be prepared. To accomplish strong characterization, complete the characterization study prior to learning your lines.

Character's name:	Your Name:
Character's age:
Character's gender:
Describe the way your character thinks:
Acts:
Moves:
Looks Like:
Feels:
Who he/she interacts with:
Character traits -- strengths:
Things the character hates:
Things the character loves:
Character traits -- flaws
Describe your character. Include everything you know about him/her as if you are telling someone about your best friend.
Comments:	